•This is Prince Malchezzar, as he like to remind you

•He starts out by hitting your tank. He also summons infernals randomly

•He also makes shadow explosions, which wouldn't be so bad if he didn't make half the raid have 1 hit point

•This goes on for a while, then he gets mad and summons axes

•Then he gets even madder and goes into phase 3.

•If you've made it all the way to phase 3, congratulations! You deserve a medal for getting this far

•The medal is not redeemable for loot, however, because you will probably wipe

•Somewhere between the axes hitting the raid, the shadow novas, and increased infernal spawn, you will probably all die

•If you manage to drag him down, you win three badges! And some really good loot, generally including the best weapons in Karazhan (not the magic axes though)
